Objective:

- To aware students about different types of companies
- To aware students about the company acts
- To understand the options of fund raising for the startups
- To understand about pros and cons of crowd funding
- To understand the legal permission status of the crowd funding
- To enhance the confidence of the attendees

Report:

A seminar was organized by IIC and Training and Placement Cell under the ambit of Capacity Enhancement Program on 21st April 2022 in the Multi-Purpose Hall PG Building TIAS at 12.00 PM. The speaker of the seminar was Mr. Abhishek Mishra, Assoc. Prof. Jindal Global Law School. The speaker briefed the attendees about the Company with simple analogies; and its type with their differences. He further briefed the students about various company acts and their salient points. He further elaborated the different means of raising the capital for start-ups. He discussed in detail about the option of crowd funding, its pros and cons. He told the attendees that in India this is legally not allowed as on date owing to unawareness amongst the investors about its risk. Earlier Dr. Nivedita, Head Training and Placement and In Charge IIC TIAS welcomed the guest and other dignitaries and introduced them to the attendees. She briefed the students about the objective of the seminar. The one hour session was very interactive and was well coordinated by Mr. Maynak Arora, Assistant Professor Mass Communication and MS. Keenika Arora, Assistant Professor, Management Sciences. The seminar ended with a vote of thanks by Dr. Nivedita.

Learning Outcome:

- Students will able to aware about different types of companies after attending the webinar.
- Students will able to aware about the company acts after attending the webinar.
- Students will able to understand about the options of fund raising for the startups after attending the webinar.
- Students will able to understand about pros and cons of crowd funding after attending the webinar.
