

2.6.1 - Programme and course outcomes for all Programmes offered by the institution are stated and displayed on website and communicated to teachers and students.

Additional Information

The learning outcomes are measurable and stated using active verbs (Bloom's taxonomy). They are expressed as complete declarative sentences that clearly describe the knowledge, skills, and competencies that students are expected to acquire as a result of completing their program of study. The resources (faculty, library, labs, technology, etc) and pedagogy to be adopted for effective course delivery and student learning are determined in consonance with the learning outcomes to be achieved. The outcomes are assessed and measured to identify the extent to which goals are accomplished.

The Course outcomes facilitate to have clear understanding about the course expectations and also support the process of learning. The COs present a clear picture of employability, skill development and entrepreneurship prospects of the course. Further, the outcomes help understand the various cross cutting issues pertaining to gender, environment, values and professional ethics

1. The institute's vision & mission, programme outcomes (POs), Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs) and Course Outcomes (COs) are displayed on the institution's website.
2. Course Outcomes are conveyed to the students by the subject teacher in introductory class. COs are mapped with prescribed POs.
3. Faculty development programme is conducted for newly joined faculty members in which all these outcomes are explained.
4. Departmental meetings are scheduled periodically by the head of the department to discuss OBE Framework
5. The institute vision/mission, POs, PSOs and COs are mentioned in the course files prepared by faculty members for respective courses.
6. The COs are mapped with course contents using Bloom's Taxonomy

The assessment of student learning outcomes is done by using a direct and indirect measurement tools. Thus, the Institute takes utmost care to develop and disseminate the learning outcomes and ensures the accomplishments of the same. The students are continuously insisted on the outcomes during the class conduct hours and during all the academic activities of the University by the respective faculty members. COs, PSOs and POs are stated in the program structure and are available on the website
