Objectives:

- To celebrate Basant Panchami and understand its cultural significance.
- To encourage students to engage with Indian traditions and festivals.
- To create an atmosphere of joy and positivity through various activities.

The Basant Panchami Celebration at Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies was a vibrant and culturally enriching event that brought together students and faculty to honor the festival of Basant Panchami. This festival marks the arrival of spring and is dedicated to Saraswati, the goddess of knowledge, music, and art.

The event began with a traditional Saraswati Puja, where students participated in the rituals, seeking blessings for wisdom and learning. The venue was adorned with yellow flowers, symbolizing the color of spring and the festival. The significance of Basant Panchami was explained, highlighting its importance in different parts of India and how it marks the end of winter and the beginning of new growth.

The event concluded with a distribution of prasad and a group photo session, where participants captured the essence of the celebration. The event coordinator, expressed her delight at the active participation and enthusiasm of the students. She emphasized the importance of celebrating
