Collage Making

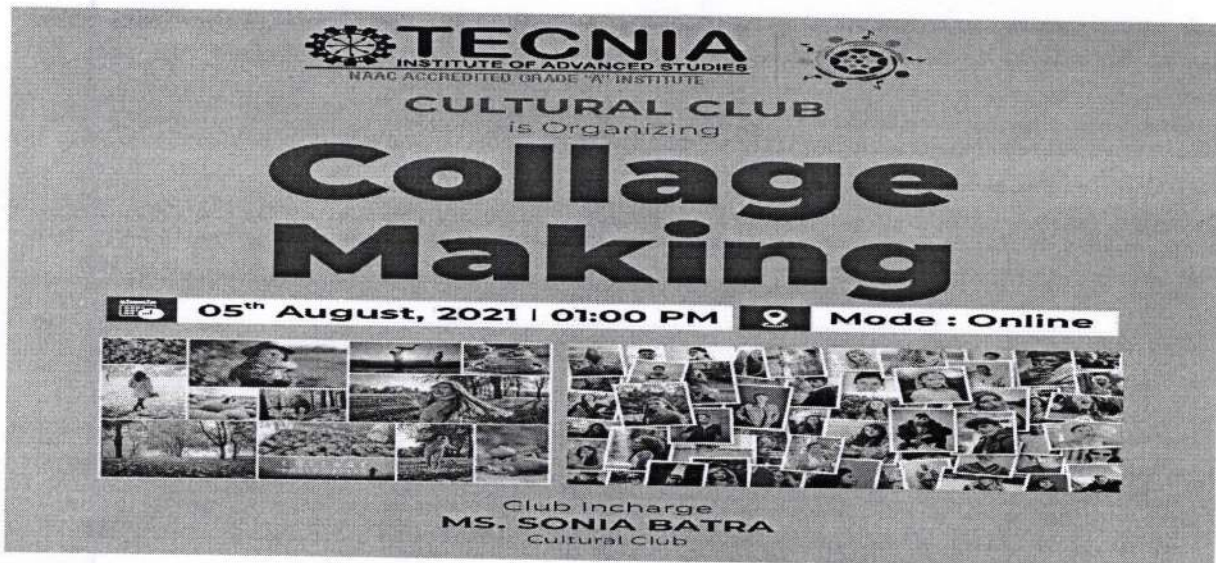

Date: 5th AUGUST 2021

Day: Thursday

Time: 1:00 pm to 2:00 pm

Coordinator: Ms. Sonia Batra

A Collage Making Competition was held on 5th August 2021, aimed at encouraging creativity and artistic expression among the participants. The event provided the students with an opportunity to showcase their imagination and ingenuity through the medium of collages.

Objective:

The primary objective of the competition was to promote artistic skills, creativity, and the use of recycled or unconventional materials to create meaningful visuals. Participants were asked to convey their ideas through the collage format, integrating visual elements into cohesive and impactful compositions.

Details of the Event:

- Venue: The competition took place on online platform.
- Participants: The event saw active participation from numerous students.
- Materials Used: Participants were encouraged to use newspapers, magazines, colored papers, and other recyclable materials to create their collages.

- Theme: Participants were allowed the freedom to choose their own themes, ensuring a wide variety of ideas and artistic expressions.

Judging Criteria:

The collages were judged based on the following parameters:

1. Creativity and Originality: The uniqueness of the concept and the way the ideas were portrayed.
2. Visual Impact: The overall appeal and arrangement of the collage elements.
3. Relevance to Theme: How well the collage adhered to its chosen theme.
4. Use of Materials: The innovative use of materials, especially recycled or unconventional resources.

Winners:

After careful evaluation, the following students were declared winners:

- 1st Prize: Rashish Pandey
- 2nd Prize: Aakansha Choudhary

The winners displayed exceptional creativity, with their collages standing out for their originality, aesthetic appeal, and thematic relevance. Both Rashish Pandey and Aakansha Choudhary received certificates and prizes in recognition of their remarkable work.
