| Report 250 to 800 words | SC/ST Music Festival held on 11.04.2024 at TIAS was a vibrant celebration of the rich musical traditions and cultural heritage of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes communities. Organized by the SC/ST Committee, this festival aimed not only to entertain but also to educate and engage the local community, fostering a sense of pride and unity among participants. The event featured a diverse array of performances, workshops, and interactive sessions designed to highlight the significance of cultural preservation and social justice. The event showcased performances from talented artists representing various regions and backgrounds, each bringing unique sounds, rhythms, and stories. From folk music and traditional dances to contemporary interpretations, attendees were treated to a rich tapestry of cultural expressions. Awareness Raising In addition to celebrating cultural heritage, the festival served as an important platform for raising awareness about the challenges faced by SC/ST communities. Through engaging talks, panel discussions, and storytelling sessions, attendees were educated about issues such as social injustice, economic disparities, and the ongoing struggle for equality. Community engagement was evident in the festival's planning process, which involved local stakeholders, artists, and community leaders. This collaborative approach ensured that the event resonated with the community's values and aspirations. Food stalls featuring traditional cuisines and crafts from local artisans further enriched the festival atmosphere, creating a vibrant marketplace that celebrated local talent. |
