Student performed drama

Report 250 to 800 words

On 17th September, 2022, TIAS hosted an engaging stage performance titled "Folklore and Myths," which showcased dramatic interpretations of folklore and mythological stories from various Scheduled Caste (SC) and Scheduled Tribe (ST) cultures. The event aimed to celebrate the rich cultural heritage and traditions of these communities while exploring themes of identity and heritage.

The performance featured a diverse cast of students, each representing different SC and ST backgrounds. They skillfully presented stories that highlighted the values, struggles, and triumphs of their respective cultures. The narrative included tales of bravery, wisdom, and moral lessons that are integral to the communities' identities. Each act was accompanied by traditional music and dance, immersing the audience in the vibrant cultural atmosphere.

Audience engagement was a key component of the performance, as attendees were encouraged to reflect on the relevance of these stories in
