Students participation in poster making

Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*

On March 8, 2022, a poster-making competition titled "Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao" was held to celebrate International Women's Day. The event aimed to showcase the power of visual arts in spreading awareness about women's empowerment, with a specific focus on girl child protection and education.

The competition invited students to design posters that reflect the essence of the campaign, "Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao," which promotes the rights and education of the girl child. The objective was not only to celebrate women's achievements but also to emphasize the struggles many women face and the need to create a society that ensures equal opportunities for girls and women.

The event started with an introduction by the faculty members, who discussed the importance of International Women's Day and its relevance in advocating for gender equality. Students were encouraged to focus on the themes of strength, resilience, and empowerment in their poster designs.

The competition provided a platform for students to showcase their creativity and commitment to social change. Some posters highlighted the significance of educating girls, while others depicted the various roles women play in society. The diverse range of interpretations showcased the participants' understanding of the complexities surrounding women's issues, as well as the hope for a more equitable future.

The event concluded with a display of all the posters, followed by an interactive session where students shared their thoughts on the theme. This

	reflective discussion emphasized the importance of education as a tool for empowerment and the collective responsibility of society to protect the rights of girls. Overall, the poster-making competition was a resounding success, promoting awareness about the "Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao" campaign and inspiring students to become advocates for women's rights and equality. The event strengthened the participants' understanding of gender issues and motivated them to contribute to the cause of women's empowerment.
