Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*

The Gandhi Jayanti Cleanliness Drive (Swachh Bharat Abhiyan), held on 1st October 2022, was organized to honor Mahatma Gandhi's commitment to cleanliness and sanitation. The event aimed to inspire community members to actively participate in cleaning public spaces and promote hygienic practices as a tribute to Gandhi's vision of a clean India.

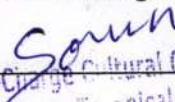

Cleanliness Drive: The day began with participants gathering at the TIAS Campus, Delhi. Students, faculty, and community members took part in cleaning the park, streets, and surrounding areas. They collected litter, swept pathways, and removed waste from open areas. Participants were equipped with gloves, brooms, and garbage bags to ensure efficient and safe waste collection.

Community Engagement: The event saw enthusiastic participation from the local community, with residents joining the drive alongside the students and faculty members. This community involvement fostered a sense of shared responsibility in maintaining public spaces. Volunteers also raised awareness among passersby about the importance of cleanliness, encouraging them to keep their surroundings clean.

Impact and Outcome: The drive succeeded in not only cleaning the designated areas but also instilled a sense of civic responsibility among participants. The event emphasized the importance of regular cleanliness initiatives and how individuals can contribute to maintaining hygiene and cleanliness in their surroundings. Participants left with a renewed understanding of Gandhi's vision for a clean India and a stronger resolve to practice cleanliness in their daily lives.

The Gandhi Jayanti Cleanliness Drive under the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan was a successful initiative that engaged the community and honoured Mahatma Gandhi's values of cleanliness and hygiene. The event inspired participants to take proactive steps toward ensuring cleaner, healthier public spaces and left a lasting impact on everyone involved.
