the well-being of spouses. The event was characterized by traditional rituals, colorful attire, and enthusiastic participation.

The event commenced with an introduction to the cultural and historical significance of Teej, followed by a series of traditional activities. Students participated in the ritual swinging on ornately decorated swings, symbolizing the advent of the monsoon. This was accompanied by traditional songs and dances, which added to the festive spirit.

The celebration also included the sharing of traditional sweets, such as Ghevar, and the application of henna, which is a significant part of the Teej festival. The students, dressed in green attire symbolizing prosperity, engaged in these activities, which created a warm and festive environment.

Learning Outcomes:

- The event enhanced cultural awareness and appreciation among students, deepening their understanding of the Teej festival and its traditions.
- Participants experienced the joy and community spirit associated with traditional Teej activities, fostering a sense of belonging.
- The celebration provided a memorable and enriching experience, contributing to the overall cultural vibrancy of the campus.
