Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*

The Virtual Quiz Competition, conducted through Kahoot, saw active participation from students across various departments. The quiz tested knowledge in areas like current affairs, history, and pop culture. The top 3 scorers received prizes, and the event encouraged healthy competition among participants. This event aimed to enhance students' general knowledge, promote competitive spirit, and provide a fun, educational experience during the pandemic. The competition was open to all students, with participants joining from various departments, bringing together a diverse group of individuals interested in testing their intellectual prowess.

The quiz covered a wide range of topics, including current affairs, history, science, and pop culture. The participants used an interactive quiz platform where they were required to answer questions within a set time limit. The event coordinator, ensured that the quiz ran smoothly and engaged participants through his energetic hosting.

The quiz consisted of multiple rounds, with each round becoming progressively more difficult. A total of 30 students participated, competing for the top positions on the leaderboard. The competition was fierce, with many participants demonstrating excellent knowledge and quick decision-making. After an exciting final round, the winners were declared.

This event fostered learning in an engaging manner, allowing participants to enhance their general knowledge while experiencing a friendly, competitive environment. It also demonstrated the power of online platforms in keeping students connected and motivated during challenging times, making the quiz a resounding success.
