“Participants, faculty, and volunteers after the successful EBSB Day Celebration – Dance, promoting cultural diversity and unity.”

Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*	The EBSB Day Celebration – Dance was held on September 14, 2024, from 11:00 AM to 2:00 PM at the VIP Hall. The event began with an inaugural speech by Dr. Upasana Khurana, highlighting the significance of cultural exchange and how dance plays a pivotal role in representing the traditions of different regions. The program featured captivating performances by students representing various dance forms and categories, including Choreography, Classical dance, Footloose, Nach Baliye and treet Dance. Each performance was accompanied by a brief introduction to the dance form’s history, origin, and cultural importance. The audience, which included faculty members, students, and staff, was enthralled by the energy, grace, and diversity displayed in the performances. The event also included an interactive session where performers shared their experiences of learning and performing different dance styles. This encouraged cross-cultural dialogue and appreciation among students. The event successfully emphasized the core principles of the EBSB initiative—national unity, respect for cultural diversity, and mutual learning. The performances were met with loud applause, and many attendees expressed their interest in learning new dance forms, reflecting the program’s impact in fostering cultural awareness.
