Students with community members making them aware about Domestic Violence

Interaction of students on Importance of Girl Child Education

Detailed Report

The Awareness Campaign on "Girl Child Education and Domestic Violence" was conducted at Nangli Poona, on 28th September, 2024 in a semi-urban locality, to raise awareness about the importance of educating girls and addressing the pressing issue of domestic violence.

TIAS students took part in this campaign to not only spread awareness but also enhance their learning experience by engaging with real-world social issues. The campaign was organized to encourage the community to prioritize girl child education and recognize and combat domestic violence. The awareness campaign on gender-related issues at Nangli Puna aimed to educate and sensitize the local community about the importance of gender equality and the challenges different genders face. It was a part of an outreach initiative to promote inclusivity, equality, and respect for diverse gender identities. The interactive session was conducted to explain the importance of educating

	girls and how it can positively influence future generations. The event targeted parents and local influencers, discussing topics like the role of education in enhancing the economic and social standing of girls. Working directly with individuals from diverse backgrounds helped students become more empathetic and culturally sensitive to the needs and challenges of marginalized groups. The Awareness Campaign on Gender-Related Issues at Nangli Poona was a successful initiative that benefited both the local community and the students involved.
