Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*	Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies (TIAS) successfully hosted "Nukkad-Aala," its much-anticipated annual street play event, providing a powerful platform for young voices to address pressing social issues through the compelling medium of theatre. Held on 26th April, 2025, the event buzzed with creative energy and impactful performances. Spearheaded by the institute's vibrant Cultural Club, under the diligent guidance of Dr. Upasana Khurana, "Nukkad-Aala" brought together talented teams ready to engage and provoke thought. The event aimed to harness the raw, immediate power of street theatre to connect with audiences on significant societal themes. Participating teams delivered performances marked by exceptional talent and dedication. The plays tackled a range of socially relevant issues, captivating audiences with their impactful narratives, powerful dialogues, synchronized coordination, and dynamic expressions. Each performance aimed not just to entertain, but to convey strong messages and encourage reflection. The meticulous planning and execution by the Cultural Club ensured a seamless event, providing participants with an excellent competitive and expressive platform. The overwhelming support from faculty and the enthusiastic student audience further boosted the morale and impact of the performances. The success of "Nukkad-Aala" stands as a testament to TIAS's commitment to fostering not only artistic excellence but also social awareness and responsibility among its students. It highlights the institute's dedication to providing platforms that hone theatrical skills and encourage critical engagement with the world. Building on this achievement, the Cultural Club at Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies looks forward to making "Nukkad-Aala" an even more significant event in the future, continuing to nurture creative talent and championing the power of street theatre to inspire change.
