Detailed Report

A gender-inclusive sports event featuring Badminton Mixed Doubles was successfully organized on 08th March 2025 at College backyard, UG building, TIAS. The event aimed to promote equality, teamwork, and inclusivity in sports by encouraging participation from players of all genders in a collaborative and respectful environment.

Teams were formed with one male and one female player each, highlighting the importance of balanced participation and mutual respect in friendly settings. The matches were played in a friendly, spirited and fair manner, showcasing not only athletic skill but also the value of cooperation across gender lines.

The event began with a brief opening ceremony that emphasized the role of sports in breaking gender stereotypes and fostering unity. A total of 6 teams competed in knockout rounds, leading to an exciting final that drew enthusiastic support from the audience.

	Participants and spectators alike praised the event for its fun, inclusive atmosphere and strong message of equality. The success of the mixed doubles format reaffirmed the belief that sports can be a powerful platform for gender inclusion and mutual respect.
