The ELC Club of Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies successfully organized an engaging event on 7th August 2024, at the Multi-Purpose Hall, where they created the ELC Wall Magazine themed "Knowing Your Candidate." This initiative aimed to educate students about the importance of making informed decisions when selecting political candidates, highlighting their backgrounds, qualifications, and promises.

The event began with an introduction to the concept of the wall magazine, which provided students with visual representations of key candidates and their platforms. The wall magazine was carefully curated to feature detailed

	information on the candidates, focusing on their educational qualifications, professional experiences, political ideologies, and their stance on crucial issues. The goal was to offer students a comprehensive understanding of the candidates and encourage them to think critically about their choices. Throughout the event, students actively participated by contributing to the content, researching the candidates, and helping with the design of the magazine. This collaborative effort not only enhanced their research and communication skills but also fostered a sense of civic responsibility. The wall magazine also featured interactive sections, such as polls and opinion pieces, which invited students to share their views on the candidates and engage in discussions. The event received positive feedback from attendees, who appreciated the effort to make political information more accessible and engaging. The initiative also underscored the role of students in shaping informed voting choices, emphasizing the importance of civic engagement in democratic processes. In conclusion, the ELC Wall Magazine on "Knowing Your Candidate" was a successful and educational event that not only highlighted the importance of informed voting but also promoted active participation and critical thinking among the students.
