Glimpses of Industrial Visit

Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)	On July 3, 2025, the Department of Journalism and Mass Communication at Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies organized an educational cum industrial visit to India TV—specifically, to the set of the renowned show Aap Ki Adalat. The visit was designed to enhance students' understanding of broadcast journalism through firsthand experience of the television production process. The theme of the visit centered on Women Empowerment, with special appearances by Smt. Rekha Gupta, the Chief Minister of Delhi, and Mr. Rajat Sharma, Senior Anchor and the host of Aap Ki Adalat. The event offered a unique learning opportunity where students observed the behind-the-scenes workings of a high-profile television program, including camera setups, lighting, scripting, and editorial control. The students were briefed about the role of television media in shaping public opinion, especially concerning women-centric issues. Through live interactions and guided sessions, students gained exposure to interviewing techniques, audience engagement strategies, and ethical dimensions of journalism.

	This industrial visit also emphasized the responsibility of the media in empowering marginalized voices and highlighted how public figures address societal concerns through structured platforms such as televised court-style interviews. The presence of both political leadership and senior journalists enriched the academic and professional relevance of the event. Overall, the visit not only contributed to academic enrichment but also inspired students to pursue careers in public affairs journalism, with a deeper commitment to social responsibility and truth in media.
