Report: On 12th August 2024, the Red Ribbon Club marked International Youth Day with a vibrant poster-making awareness campaign. The event centered on empowering youth to build a sustainable future, while also shedding light on the challenges and opportunities they encounter in today's world.

The program began with an inspiring inaugural speech by Dr. Sheenu Arora, who underscored the vital role of youth in global and community development. Dr. Arora also highlighted their immense potential to bring about positive societal transformation.

Participants enthusiastically showcased their creativity through posters that conveyed impactful messages about youth empowerment, sustainability, and social progress. The posters explored diverse themes such as environmental preservation, mental health awareness, gender equality, and the contribution of youth to achieving the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

This campaign offered a platform for students to visually express their ideas while encouraging meaningful discussions on key issues affecting the younger generation. The event concluded with Dr. Sheenu Arora commending the participants for their efforts and motivating them to remain active contributors to their communities.
