Minutes of the Meeting:

1. Review of Current Anti-Ragging Measures:

The committee noted that the existing institutional protocols are being implemented effectively. However, it was recommended that periodic audits be conducted to ensure sustained compliance.

2. Awareness and Sensitization Initiatives:

Dr. Monisha reviewed the current anti-ragging policies. It was decided to expand awareness programs through seminars, posters, social media campaigns, and Nukkad Natak (Street Plays) to effectively engage students and promote a ragging-free campus environment.

3. Strengthening Anti-Ragging Measures and Awareness Initiatives: The committee emphasized the need to reinforce preventive strategies and broaden the reach of awareness activities. Departments will be encouraged to adopt a proactive approach in educating students and ensuring a safe and inclusive campus.
4. Mechanism for Handling Complaints and Disciplinary Actions: The Student Counsellor, Ms. Isha Sharma, stressed the need for a more student-friendly complaint-reporting mechanism. The committee recommended strengthening support channels to ensure timely, confidential, and effective handling of student grievances.

The Chairperson, Dr. Monisha, expressed gratitude to all members for their valuable inputs and active participation. She urged the committee to maintain sustained efforts toward strengthening anti-ragging initiatives and reaffirmed the institute's commitment to ensuring the safety and well-being of all students.
