Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*

To mark the occasion of Hindi Diwas, the Cultural Club of TIAS organized a Poetry Recitation Competition on 12th September 2025 in Room No. 2403, UG Building. The theme of the event was “Hindi: Rashtriya Ekta aur Vaishvik Pehchaan ki Taakat”, which aimed to emphasize the role of Hindi in fostering national unity and establishing a global cultural identity for India.

The event commenced with a formal welcome by Dr. Upasana Khurana, Incharge, Cultural Club, who highlighted the historical importance of Hindi Diwas and the value of linguistic pride among the younger generation. She also delivered an insightful talk on the evolution of Hindi poetry and its role in social movements and cultural diplomacy.

Students from various disciplines participated in the competition, presenting original and published poems that explored themes such as unity in diversity, the beauty of Hindi as a language, and its global recognition. Participants showcased a rich variety of poetic styles ranging from classical verse to contemporary spoken word demonstrating both creativity and emotional depth.

A few highlights included poems titled “Meri Bhasha Hindi”, “Bhasha ki Pehchaan”, and “Hindi – Apna Swabhimaan”, which captivated the audience with their lyrical beauty and patriotic tone. The recitations were judged on criteria such as content, delivery, expression, and relevance to the theme.

Mr. Pratham Sethi and Ms. Pranati were awarded from all the Participants. Dr. Shalini Gupta, Club Incharge, congratulated the winners and
