Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*

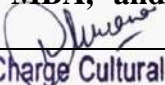

The Cultural Club of Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies (TIAS), organized a vibrant Lohri Celebration on 13th January 2026 at 4:00 PM onwards in the UG Building, TIAS. The celebration aimed to promote cultural awareness, unity, and festive spirit among students and faculty members.

Lohri, a traditional harvest festival primarily celebrated in North India, marks the end of winter and the beginning of longer days. The event

	commenced with a brief introduction highlighting the cultural and agricultural significance of Lohri. Students were informed about the traditional customs associated with the festival, including the lighting of the bonfire, singing of folk songs, and sharing of festive sweets like rewri, gachak, and popcorn. The highlight of the celebration was the symbolic bonfire around which students and faculty gathered, offering traditional items as a mark of gratitude and prosperity. The atmosphere was filled with enthusiasm as students performed Punjabi folk songs and danced to the beats of traditional music. The lively performances reflected the vibrancy and richness of Indian culture. The event also encouraged interactive participation, allowing students from diverse backgrounds to come together and experience the joy of collective celebration. Faculty members appreciated the efforts of the Cultural Club in organizing the event smoothly and ensuring inclusive participation. The celebration fostered a sense of togetherness, strengthening interpersonal bonds among students and promoting unity in diversity. Through this celebration, students not only enjoyed the festivities but also gained a deeper understanding of India's cultural heritage. The Lohri Celebration at TIAS successfully created an atmosphere of joy, cultural pride, and community bonding. It reinforced the importance of preserving traditions while nurturing mutual respect and harmony within the academic community.
