| | The programme commenced with an introductory address highlighting the significance of Sadbhavana Diwas and its relevance in today's socio-cultural environment. Students and faculty members were sensitized to the importance of unity in diversity, peaceful coexistence, and ethical conduct as essential pillars of a strong nation. The atmosphere of the event reflected patriotism, inclusiveness, and collective responsibility. Various awareness-oriented activities were conducted as part of the observance. Students participated in discussions, reflections, and pledge-taking activities emphasizing harmony, non-violence, and national integration. The visual elements of the programme symbolized India's rich cultural diversity and the shared values that bind the nation together. Through interactive engagement, students gained deeper insights into the importance of social cohesion and peaceful dialogue in addressing societal challenges. The event provided a platform for students to express their understanding of unity and harmony through thoughtful participation. Faculty members guided students in connecting historical ideals with contemporary responsibilities, reinforcing the role of youth in building a peaceful and inclusive society. The Cultural Club members efficiently coordinated the programme, ensuring smooth execution and meaningful engagement. The observance of Sadbhavana Diwas at TIAS served as a reminder that national unity is strengthened through empathy, understanding, and respect for diversity. The programme successfully fostered awareness and encouraged students to imbibe values that contribute to social harmony and responsible citizenship. |
