by Dr. Durgesh Tripathi, Dean, USMC, GGSIPU, as Chief Guest, who appreciated the students' efforts and emphasized the importance of visual storytelling in contemporary communication. A key highlight was the expert feedback after the screenings, which helped students, understands cinematic nuances and areas for improvement, turning the showcase into a rich learning experience.

IKS Icon- The Knowledge Runway, an inter-college fashion show presented as a special segment of Film Fiesta. This segment creatively represented Indian Knowledge Systems through costume, styling, and stage presentation while also portraying iconic Bollywood characters. Students from various colleges participated with thematic concepts that blended India's cultural heritage with popular cinematic imagery. The ramp came alive with presentations inspired by regional attire, classical traditions, and historical influences, alongside recognizable Bollywood looks symbolizing Indian values and storytelling.

Participants demonstrated remarkable research, coordination, costume design, makeup, and confident presentation. Each walk narrated a visual story, making the segment both educational and entertaining. The judges appreciated the originality and thematic clarity, offering constructive feedback that enhanced the learning value of the event.

The event concluded with the announcement of results for both segments. In the Filmmaking Competition, Opposite Film from MAIMS secured the 1st position, Santulan from Ravi Sarin Film Institute won the 2nd position, and Do Kinare, 1 Dhaara from TIAS achieved the 3rd position. In the IKS Icon – The Knowledge Runway (Fashion Show) segment, Rashi from DJMC, TIAS secured the 1st position, followed by Ananya from Ashtwakra Institute and Anshika from DMS, TIAS shared the 2nd position. The winners were appreciated for their originality, creativity, and impactful presentation.

Together, the film showcase and IKS Icon created a balanced platform for students to express ideas through both cinema and fashion. The event was successfully organized by Mr. Mayank Arora, Assistant Professor, along with student coordinators, ensuring its smooth conduct and overall success.
