Participants confidently delivering their heartfelt poems at the Poetry Recitation Competition on Matra Bhasha: The Soul of our Identity

Participants, faculty, and volunteers during the Poetry Recitation Competition organized on Matra Bhasha: The Soul of our Identity.

The event was celebrated the strength of Matra Bhasha in promoting national unity and global identity.

Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*

To celebrate the richness and significance of our mother tongue, the NSS Club of Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies (TIAS) organized a Poetry Competition on 05 February 2026 at UG Building, Room No. 2504. The theme of the event, "Mātrā Bhāshā: The Soul of Our Identity," aimed to highlight the emotional, cultural, and intellectual connection individuals share with their native language.

The event commenced with a warm welcome address by the organizing team, emphasizing the importance of preserving and promoting one's mother tongue in an increasingly globalized world. The introduction set the tone for the competition by underlining how language serves as a powerful medium of identity, heritage, and expression.

Students from various courses including BBA, MBA, BCA, MCA, BAJMC, and B.Com (H) actively participated in the competition. The participants recited poems that beautifully captured themes such as cultural roots, emotional attachment to one's mother tongue, linguistic diversity, and the role of native languages in shaping personal and national identity. The performances ranged from traditional poetic forms to modern expressive styles, reflecting both creativity and depth of thought.

Some of the recitations stood out for their originality, impactful delivery, and strong connection to the theme. The poems effectively conveyed the idea that a mother tongue is not merely a means of communication but a reflection of one's culture, values, and heritage.

The participants were evaluated on the basis of content, clarity of expression, confidence, pronunciation, and relevance to the theme. The judges appreciated the efforts of all participants and acknowledged the high level of enthusiasm and talent displayed during the event.

The Programme Officer, Ms. Ramika Verma, and the In-charge, Extended Clubs, Dr. Shalini Gupta, appreciated the participants for their commendable performances and encouraged them to continue nurturing their literary skills and love for their mother tongue.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the organizers, participants, and audience for making the event a grand success. The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation and served as a meaningful platform for students to express their thoughts and emotions through poetry. Overall, the Poetry Competition was not just a literary activity but a celebration of linguistic pride and cultural identity. It reinforced the idea that our mother tongue is indeed the soul of our identity and plays a vital role in preserving our cultural legacy.
